REAL PROPERTY MASTER PLANNING PROSPECT COURSE

COURSE OUTLINE

1. Intro.
2. Overview
3. Planning Tools
4. Force Structure
5. Contributing Docs.
6. Environmental Docs
7. Real Property Master Plan Digest
8. Long-range Comp.
9. IDS/IDG
10. Capital Invest. Strategy
11. Short-Range Comp.
12. Site Planning
13. Selling the M.P.
14. M.P. Admin.

COURSE GOALS, OBJECTIVES

Introductory course

- Philosophy - Army planning process
- Multifunctional team
- Increased-effectiveness
- Non-planners learn-process, roles

Objectives, Students Learn:

- AR 210-20
- RPMP components
- Planning methodology
- How RPMP fits into Army PPBES
- Structure of the Army (AC&RC)
- Where and how to find information
- Learn that planning requires collaboration
- Managing the installation RPPB

COURSE STRUCTURE

- RPMP Process
- Lecture / Discussion
- Practical exercises

STUDENT PARTICIPATION

- Class divided into teams
- Team leader appointed
- Teams remain together
- Teams report to class
- Group presentation
- Rotate presenters
- Please participate/discuss
- Socialize with each other off-line

PRE- AND POST-TEST

Not a penalizer

- Pre-test measures current knowledge
- Post-test:
  - Evaluates instructor effectiveness
  - Evaluates student learning
  - Reinforces key points

COMMON QUESTIONS FROM STUDENTS

"Why is force structure important to me…?"

- "Why do I care about the budget process…?

- Our goal…”Instruct our students in what these processes and systems are, and how they affect you and the Army Real Property Master Planning Process.”

“IF YOU FAIL TO PLAN
…YOU PLAN TO FAIL”